

Petroglyph Rock
 Was located on top of the second butte on the right side going up Provo Canyon. It was removed by BYU <sup>about 1982</sup> down to the Bertrand M Harrison Park at East 800 No. in Provo, before blasting & excavation for the new 4-lane Hiway up Provo Canyon.
 Legend has it that there were 4 such rocks located in a straight line down across into the West Desert.
 for signal Fire Sites - Dan Tucker

Petroglyph Rock
 was located on top of the second
 butte on the right side going up Provo Canyon. It was removed by BYU <sup>3/24/1982</sup> down to the Bertrand Harrison Park at East 800 No. in Provo, before blasting & excavation for the new 4-lane N-way up Provo Canyon.
 Legend has it that there were 4
 such rocks located in a straight
 line down across into the West Desert for signal five sites - Dan Tucker

